LEON HESS, Chairman of the Board

"A breath of fresh air."

That's what the prescription read to cure the woes of the New York Jets. With that in mind, Chairman of the Board Leon Hess took the first step to bring about the resurgence of the Jets when he decided to get the best "football man" to run the club and named Dick Steinberg to the post of vice president and general manager in December, 1989. And a month and a half later, Steinberg selected Cincinnati offensive coordinator Bruce Coslet as head coach.

With the two men in place, the Jets took their first steps towards progress in the 1990s. They posted a 6-10 record in the first year while fielding a team that had 23 players with one or fewer years of playing time in the NFL and gained valuable experience. With a new offensive and defensive system, the Jets actually led at halftime in 11 games and after three quarters in seven of those.

"We are very optimistic about where we are going from here," said Hess. "We will end up with a winning team. The fans want a championship, the fans deserve it. The organization wants it, the organization deserves it. Leon Hess, at my age, would sure love to see a winning team while I can still enjoy it with our fans."

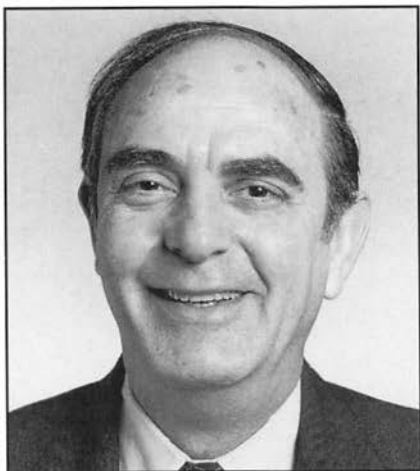

Hess has fought long and hard to achieve first-class conditions for both the players and fans throughout the years.

After citing Shea Stadium as "the NFL's poorest facility for athletes and spectators alike," Hess announced plans to move to the Meadowlands prior to the 1984 season. As a result, during the last seven seasons, thousands of additional Jets' fans have had the opportunity to watch NFL football in comfort and safety, in modern, clean surroundings, with proper facilities, adequate parking and good football sight-lines.

In addition, Hess has continued to provide the Jets' players and staff with outstanding facilities by building an ultra-modern locker room at the Meadowlands and by improving the Weeb Ewbank training complex at Hofstra University with a new AstroTurf field, a new locker room and weightroom and additional offices.

In 1983, Hess was an honored recipient of the Distinguished American Award at the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Dinner. Past winners of that award have included Vince Lombardi, Bob Hope, Jimmy Stewart, Bill Carpenter and Fr. Theodore Hesburgh.

Hess, the Chairman of the Board of the Amerada Hess Corporation, is the sole owner of the Jets since 1984, and has been totally involved in the development of the club since acquiring part of the franchise in 1963.

STEVE GUTMAN

President

Managing an NFL franchise is a challenging task. In his three seasons as club president, Steve Gutman is meeting that challenge and is playing a key role in the rebuilding of the team and the front office.

In his position as president, Gutman has exhibited strong leadership. When the decision was made to get the best "football man" to run the club, he led the search which resulted in the appointment of Dick Steinberg as general manager in December, 1989.

"The changes in football management that took place were very positive and constructive," said Gutman. "I think Dick Steinberg and Bruce Coslet and his staff and the scouting department have done a terrific job. We have maintained a corps of veterans to build upon, yet we replaced half the team. Our objective was to get the atmosphere for the 1990s established and I think we succeeded. We are confident that sometime in the 1990s we are going to have a team that everyone who follows us is happy about, most of all our fans."

Gutman, who works closely with owner and Chairman of the Board Leon Hess, was named president on June 14, 1988. He has been with the Jets since 1977. His first 11 seasons were spent serving as the corporate treasurer-secretary and administrative manager. In that role he supervised the daily operation of the club and served on the Board of Directors. He also directed all of the Jets fiscal operations including players contract negotiations, tickets and marketing. Gutman has added the responsibilities of the presidency while still directing all of the fiscal and daily operations of the club.

Gutman has been a respected figure around NFL circles. In 1991, he was appointed by NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue to the Management Council Work Group. He served as an economic consultant to the NFL Management Council during the 1982 collective bargaining sessions with the NFLPA. He is also a member of the Pete Rozelle players' pension plan committee.

Prior to joining the Jets in 1977, Gutman was executive director of the Westchester County Guidance Center in New Rochelle. He has had extensive experience as a financial consultant in areas of securities, research, sales, underwriting, investment banking and management.

Gutman received his BS in accounting and MBA in corporate finance from New York University. He was born Jan. 24, 1935 in the Bronx, New York. He and his wife, Carol, have three children, sons Fred, Rob and daughter Elise.

DICK STEINBERG

Vice President-General Manager

In his first season as the Jets' vice president and general manager, Dick Steinberg saw a year that had all the elements of progress, learning and development.

"Before the season started we said we wanted a team that would play hard and make progress," said Steinberg. "I think the team played hard all year and we really feel good about that. I think we made progress in a lot of areas, not the steady progress we wanted, but overall we made a lot of progress."

"I think Bruce Coslet and the entire coaching staff came in here and established an entirely new environment that is very positive. The program has the players wanting to work hard and believing in what we're trying to do."

Steinberg began rebuilding the Jets last season with a team that had 23 players with one or fewer years of NFL experience--12 rookies, two first year players and nine players in their second season in the NFL. Nine of his 1990 draft choices contributed and four of those held starting positions during the year (Blair Thomas, Rob Moore, Tony Stargell and Dwayne White). Steinberg also had seven Plan B players play during the season, with three of those starting (Mark Boyer, Brett Miller and Trevor Matich). With that young group gaining valuable experience, the Jets posted a 6-10 record while having the lead at halftime in 11 games and after three quarters in seven games.

"With Dick running the show, they've become an aggressive team," said 49er vice president John McVay.

The Jets named Steinberg as vice president and general manager of the club on December 18, 1989 giving the former New England Patriots director of player development full control of the Jets' football operations.

"Dick Steinberg was named vice president and general manager of the Jets following extensive interviews with myself and president Steve Gutman which have led to our finding the best "football man" to take full charge of our team's operations," said New York Jets owner Leon Hess. "Steinberg's authority and command of the football operations will be with full power to bring about those changes which are necessary to rebuild the team."

"Dick has been given full authority to run the football operation," said Jets president Steve Gutman. "Given the opportunity to get a Dick Steinberg, someone of that caliber and reputation, we had to do it."

Steinberg came to New York not only highly regarded by the Jets, but also well respected by others in the NFL.

"I just think he's one of the better people we have in this business," said Giants' general manager George Young. "Does he have the background, knowledge, instincts, guts, work ethic? Has he been with winning teams and does he have ideas that give him a chance to win? It's 'yes' to all those things. Nobody is a sure thing, but I'll take my chance with guys like him. Dick knows what it takes to win."

"Dick is a hard worker with a terrific eye for talent," said the Chargers' general manager Bobby Beathard. "I think he has a good feel about the whole picture-coaching and the strengths and weaknesses of a team. He's not a guy who thinks he's some hot number. He's kind of laid-back and easy to get along with."

Steinberg, who has selected the talent for two Super Bowl teams-the Patriots of Super Bowl XX in 1986 and the Rams of Super Bowl XIV in 1980, is considered one of the most knowledgeable minds in the NFL and a top talent hunter. He came to the Jets after nine years with the New England Patriots as director of player development. At New England Steinberg acquired Pro Bowlers Andre Tippett, Brian Holloway, Tony Collins, Irving Fryar and Fred Marion and traded for Sean Farrell to solidify its offensive line.

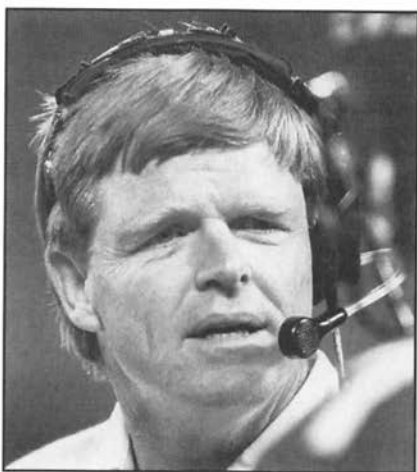

Steinberg originally left the Patriots as a scout (1971-76) to become director of college scouting for the Rams in June, 1976. He remained in that post until being promoted to the position of director of player personnel, a job he held until June, 1980. In his first draft with the Rams in 1977 his first four picks were Bob Brudzinski, Nolan Cromwell, Wendell Tyler and Vince Ferragamo, all key figures in their Super Bowl season. After his four-year stay with the Rams, Steinberg joined then-general manager Steve Rosenbloom as vice president of player personnel with New Orleans. Steinberg later resigned that post on January 20, 1981 before rejoining the Patriots.

Regarding his philosophy on the draft Steinberg said, "If you get away from taking the best player on the board, you're making a mistake. If you've got five good receivers, and you take another one, don't worry. That's been proven so many times. It comes back to haunt you. We don't mind stockpiling talent at all because the injury factor is so prevalent."

Steinberg prepared himself for the pressures of the NFL when he thought he wanted to become an NBA official in the early 1960s. At the time he was officiating college games in the ACC and SEC and he went to work summer league games in Puerto Rico in 1963 to gain further experience. During one game Steinberg made a controversial call against the home team which went on to lose. Following the game the angry crowd attacked his van, turning it over and Dick and his partner were standing on the van's side wondering how they would escape. A police car showed up to escort them away. His officiating days ended soon after.

A native of Philadelphia, born August 9, 1935, Steinberg played football and majored in physical education and health at Temple University. In addition to serving a two-year tour of duty with the U.S. Army in France, Steinberg was a high school coach at Philadelphia's Roman Catholic High (1960-61) and at Staunton (VA) Military Academy (1961-64). He then entered the collegiate coaching ranks as an assistant at Vanderbilt (1964-66) and Kansas State (1967-69).

Following a brief stint as a scout with the Dallas Cowboys in 1969, Steinberg spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Southern Mississippi (1970-71) before joining the Patriots as a personnel scout under then-director of player personnel Bucko Kilroy. Steinberg served with the Patriots from 1972-1976 before departing for the Rams.

BRUCE COSLET, Head Coach

"In a nutshell, we accomplished a lot last year, but we haven't even scratched the surface. There's a lot out there for us to accomplish. We'll set our expectations higher for 1991," said Bruce Coslet who enters his second season as the Jets' head coach.

In Coslet's first year as head coach, the Jets posted a 6-10 record with a squad that had 23 players with one or fewer years of NFL experience. His preparation enabled the team to have the lead at halftime in 11 games and after three quarters in seven while the young players gained valuable experience. Of the five new coaches in the NFL in 1990, Coslet had the second best record (Only Houston's Jack Pardee, who took over a playoff team, had better) and he was named as the All-NFL Rookie Head Coach by Football Digest. With Coslet serving as the offensive coordinator in 1990, the Jets finished second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in rushing (132.9 yards per game). In other significant categories, the Jets cut their QB sack total down from 62 in 1989 to just 40 in 1990. The club's offensive turnovers were also down from the previous season by 41 to 24, the INT dropped from 24 to 11 and the total points scored went up from 253 to 295.

"Bruce's inspiration is translated among the staff and players into a situation where everyone is really intensely and emotionally involved in this football team and that's a very positive development," said Jets' president Steve Gutman.

"I think Bruce came in here and established an entirely new environment that is very positive," said Jets general manager Dick Steinberg. "The program has the players wanting to work hard and believing in what we're trying to do.

"The main thing Bruce changed is the atmosphere here," said Jets' QB Ken O'Brien. "You take on the personality of the head coach—it's aggressive and confident. But you have to know how to enjoy it, too. Everybody believes in the direction we're going."

"Bruce gained our trust as a coach," added Jets' RB Freeman McNeil.

The Jets named Coslet as the eighth full time head coach in club history on February 6, 1990. Following extensive interviews, Steinberg decided on the former Cincinnati offensive coordinator as the man to lead the football team in the '90s.

"We looked for a strong motivator, a teacher and a disciplinarian, a guy who can get the most out of his players every time out, and we feel that Bruce is that guy," said Steinberg. "We were looking for someone who can create a winning environment. In addition we are getting a man with one of the most innovative minds in the business. At Cincinnati he was not only instrumental in developing an exciting offense, but also one of the most productive running attacks in the NFL, an important ingredient in the northeast. I also talked to guys who played for him. Guys liked to play for him and they played hard."

"Having coached Bruce as a player and seen him grow as a coach, I know him as well as you can know someone," said NBC commentator and former 49er head coach Bill Walsh. "He is extremely bright and his intellect is not common in athletics. Bruce is creative and has a solid knowledge of offensive football. He has proven to be at the cutting edge of the game."

"Bruce has a great rapport with the players and his football knowledge is unsurpassed by any coach," said Cincinnati QB Boomer Esiason. "He was a steal for the Jets. He knows more about how to dissect a defense than anyone I've seen. He wasn't only my teacher, but my eyes."

"The players loved Bruce," said former Bengals LB Reggie Williams. "You don't elicit that type of emotion casually. It embodies a response to discipline, a respect of intellect and recognition that he always had the players' best interest at heart."

"I'm not a tough guy, that's a misnomer, but I'm as tough as I need to be," said Coslet. "I'm not a gruff, tough, yell-at-the-players type coach, but I can deal with problems. I'm a creation of all the people I've played with and worked for (included in that group are Bill Walsh, Paul Brown, Sam Wyche, Forrest Gregg, Lindy Infante and Buddy Ryan)."

"My pet peeve is assignment error. I tell my guys that. Lack of effort, I won't stand for it. There are specifics, like the wide receiver must block. The quarterback shall not throw the ball down the middle when there's a free safety. Certain things I won't put up with. I can't stand drugs."

The 44-year old Coslet, who is the third youngest head coach in the NFL (only Cleveland's Bill Belichick and Raiders' Art Shell are younger), had been with the Cincinnati Bengals as a coach since 1981, the last four years as offensive coordinator. During his stretch as coordinator from 1986-89, the Bengals had one of the most explosive offensive schemes in the NFL. During that time the Bengals had the NFL's number one offense twice (1986 and 1989), the NFL's top ranked rushing attack twice (1988 and 1989) and led the AFC in total offense in three of the last four years (1986, 1988 and 1989). During that time he coached Pro Bowlers QB Boomer Esiason, T Anthony Munoz, TE Rodney Holman, RB James Brooks and G Max Montoya.

In 1988, Coslet was a key factor in the Bengals' trip to the Super Bowl. On the way to the AFC Championship, Cincinnati had the number one offense in the NFL (378.6 avg. per game) and the top ranked rushing attack.

Coslet originally joined the Cincinnati coaching staff in 1981 as the TE and special teams coach and served in that capacity through 1982. In 1983 he was given the added responsibility of the Bengals' passing game. Coslet tutored the WRs in 1984-85 under Sam Wyche before being named the coordinator. During those years Coslet was credited with the emergence of Pro Bowlers WR Cris Collinsworth and TE Dan Ross. When he joined Cincinnati in 1981, he became the first former Bengal to join the coaching staff.

Coslet originally signed as a free agent and played TE and special teams for Cincinnati from 1969-76 and was coached for seven of those eight seasons by Bill Walsh. He served as captain of the special teams there for six years playing behind Bob Trumpy. Coslet's career receiving totals were 64-877-9 TD in the NFL. In 1968 he played TE in the CFL for Edmonton under Neil Armstrong before being released after one season.

After retiring in 1976, Coslet went back to his native Stockton, CA, and opened a successful construction business from 1977-79 where he managed over 250 employees. During that time he also invested in a chain of delicatessens in that area. A visit to the 49er training camp in the summer of 1979 made him realize how much he missed football. When he received a call from Walsh to assist the 49ers during training camp, Coslet jumped at the offer. Coslet stayed on as an assistant coach the entire season in 1980 working with the TEs and special teams before joining the Bengals in 1981.

Coslet played TE at the University of Pacific from 1965-67 where the head coach at the time was Doug Scovil and the defensive coordinator was Buddy Ryan. He also earned his BA in history and psychology there.

Coslet was born August 5, 1946 in his hometown of Oakdale, CA, where he was a football standout at Joint High. He and his wife Kathy have 2 children, son J.J. 16 and daughter Amy 14.

1990 JETS GAME-BY-GAME

Sept. 9, at CINCINNATI 25, Jets 20 (56,467) - Sunny, warm. "I'm very proud of my players. They played their guts out. We just didn't get it done, but give Cincinnati credit. They have a damn good football team," said Jets' head coach Bruce Coslet following the Jets emotional 25-20 loss on opening day. New York, with Coslet making his debut against his old team, built a 20-10 lead, but the Bengals, tabbed by many to be a possible Super Bowl team, rallied for 15 4th quarter points for the victory. The Jets desperately tried to come back following the Bengals last score and drove to the C27 before being intercepted in the EZ. It was a game of big plays and the Bengals turned in the 2 biggest: 1) they forced NY to settle for a 26-yard FG after the Jets has a 1st and goal situation at the C1; and then after the Bengals climbed to 20-17, 2) Pro Bowl SS David Fulcher scored a safety as he sacked O'Brien in the EZ. In addition to his safety, Fulcher also had 9 tackles and made the game's final INT.

Sept 16, AT JETS 24, Cleveland 21 (67,354) - Sunny, pleasant. The Jets overcame Cleveland's 98-yard opening KOR for a TD and built a 24-7 lead and then held on to give Bruce Coslet his 1st head coaching victory in the Jets' home debut. After the Browns' quick 7-0 lead, the Jets struck back with a 68-yard TD drive and a 90-yard march for a 14-7 lead. Then DT Gerald Nichols stripped Eric Metcalf of the ball and Jets converted the opportunity for a 47-yard Pat Leahy FG. They followed that with another TD on their next series, highlighted by Freeman McNeil's 59-yard pass and run from Ken O'Brien. Brad Baxter went the final distance for the Jets' halftime lead of 24-7. In the 3rd quarter the Browns mounted their best drive of the game, going 61 yards to narrow the margin to 24-14 and with 1:59 left they closed to within 3 points on a 78-yard, 10-play drive. NY closed out the game with a pair of 1st downs. RBs Freeman McNeil and Blair Thomas were the sparks for the Jets. The Jets' "D" held the Browns to just 44 yards rushing and a total offense of 25 yards.

Sept. 24, BUFFALO 30, at Jets 7 (69,972) - Clear, cool. The Buffalo Bills turned a bad week into a good one. All week long all the Bills heard about was their "bickering" after their 30-7 loss to Miami. The Bills, to their credit, turned the loss into a positive and stomped the Jets 30-7 on Monday night TV. They controlled both lines of scrimmage, and behind the running of Thurman Thomas ran for 292 yards and added another 159 passing. Thomas, with runs of 60 and 40 yards, was 18-214 for the night. The Buffalo "D" rushed Ken O'Brien all night and recorded 3 sacks and forced 3 fumbles. It limited NY to 249 yards, only 125 passing. The Jets opened the scoring with a 75-yard, 8-play TD drive, but after that it was all Buffalo with Thomas' running, Kelly's 2 TD passes, Scott Norwood's 3 FG and a tough defense which was led by Bruce Smith's 2 sacks and 2 forced fumbles.

Sept. 31, JETS 37, at New England 13 (36,724) - Cloudy, cool. The Jets put together their most solid effort of the year on both offense and defense to defeat the Patriots. The Jets rolled for 499 yards of total offense and held the Pats to 258. Two No. 1 draft choices, RB Blair Thomas and WR Rob Moore showed why they were picked so high. Moore was 9-175-1 TD while Thomas was 20-100 rushing. The Jets took a 7-0 lead on their 1st possession and after NE closed to 7-3 they broke it open to build a 24-6 halftime margin. NY put together scoring drives of 11 plays, 54-yards for their 1st TD, 82-yards (Moore's TD good for the last 69 yards) for the 2nd TD, 54-yards for a Pat Leahy 24-yard FG and Freeman McNeil's 4-yard burst completed a 60-yard march. The Jets scored 10-points in the last 1:19 of the half to break the game open. The defense limited NE's running game to 89 yards, made 4 INT and recorded 2 sacks. LB Kyle Clifton had 2 INT, 1 led to a FG and the other was in the EZ snuffing out a NE score.

Oct. 7, AT MIAMI 20, Jets 16 (69,678) - Sunny, hot. It was a typical Jets-Dolphins game. It came down to the last 2 minutes, the only thing missing was the exploding scoreboard. Riding the arm of Dan Marino, the Dolphins scored the winning TD with only 1:03 remaining. The Jets broke a 13-13 tie with a 30-yard FG, but it left them holding onto only a 3-point lead with 6:34 left. Marino answered the Jets' FG by taking the Dolphins 80-yards in 14 plays (including 4 3rd down plays) with the winning TD coming on a 3rd down 13-yard pass to Mark Duper. The Jets began the day with scores on their 1st 3 possessions, but had to settle for FGs on 2 of their 3 long drives. The Jets' drives were 16-78, 8:44 for a FG, 9-80, 4:04 for a TD; and 14-67, 8:16 for a FG. The sting of the defeat was the fact that the Dolphins produced 20 points despite having the ball for only 23:07 to the Jets' 36:53.

Oct. 14, SAN DIEGO 39, at Jets 3 (63,311) - Sunny, warm. The Jets messed up their 1st 2 punts of the game and paid dearly for it. And then the roof caved in and they could never escape as the Chargers gave the Jets a plain old fashioned butt kicking on their own home turf. SD controlled both lines of scrimmage pounding the Jets on the ground with 224 yards rushing and controlling the ball for 35:37. Defensively, it was the same story. It drove Ken O'Brien from the game and treated Tony Eason no better limiting the Jets to a total offense of only 148 yards. They held the Jets to only 7 completions and made 4 sacks and 1 INT. NY briefly escaped a fumbled punt, but after a goal line stand, paid for it with a safety. They overcame that problem with a FG, but by not getting off the 2nd punt, disaster set in big time and San Diego gained a 16-3 lead and poured it on. In the 3rd quarter they had the ball for 12:44. Marion Butts followed the Chargers offensive line for 26-121-2 TD rushing and Anthony Miller was 5-100-1 TD receiving.

Oct. 21, AT BUFFALO 30, Jets 27 (79,002) - Sunny, mild. The Jets experienced deja vu for the 4th time in 1990 and for the 3rd time, didn't like it as they saw a narrow 4th quarter lead slip away. Twice the Jets gained 14 point leads — 14-0 and 21-7 — only to see the Bills come back. The Jets drove 72-yards in 12 plays, to gain their final lead of the day when Pat Leahy kicked a 25-yard FG. But their 3-point margin proved to be not enough as Buffalo won its 3rd straight game in the 4th quarter: The Bills struck gold as Jim Kelly hit his 4th TD pass of the day to cap a 71-yard, 11-play drive with a scrambling 14-yard TD pass to Jamie Mueller for the day, the Jets controlled the ball for 37:02 and gained 342 yards. Bruce Smith had 2 sacks and was a big factor with 9 tackles and numerous pressures.

Oct. 28, JETS 17, at Houston 12 (56,337) - Indoors. After suffering 3 of their 5 losses in the closing minutes of the game, the Jets turned it around and got some 4th quarter heroics and went on to defeat the Oilers. On the 1st play after the Oilers thwarted a possible Jets go-ahead drive with an INT, rookie DE Darrell Davis made a big time play sacking Warren Moon, causing a fumble and then recovered it in the end zone for what proved to be the winning points. The Oilers fought back twice more, but came up short. On Houston's next possession back-to-back sacks by Dennis Byrd and Gerald Nichols helped force Houston into an errant 52-yard FG attempt. The Jets then got a great 3rd down pass and catch from Ken O'Brien to Al Toon (28-yards) to set up an insurance FG making Houston go for a TD on its last series. And that one didn't end until John Booty knocked the ball away in the EZ as time expired. Earlier in the game the Jets had another big play when they held off a Houston drive to the J1 in the 2nd quarter when James Hasty recovered a Moon lateral. The Oilers dominated the stats with 425 yards to the Jets 229 and held the ball for 37:30, but it was the Jets' big plays that made the difference.

Nov. 4, AT JETS 24, Dallas 9 (68,086) - For the 2nd straight week, a team from Texas dominated the stats and controlled the ball, but the Jets got the big plays and won. The Cowboys controlled the clock for 35:56 and outgained NY 321-187, but the Jets got an NFL record tying PR from Terance Mathis and INTs from Kyle Clifton and Erik McMillan broke the Cowboys' back. Dallas enjoyed a 3-0 lead for almost 29 minutes until fielded a punt on his own 2 and returned it for a TD to give the Jets a 7-3 lead. Clifton, who earlier helped stop the Cowboys' QB sneak on a 4th and inches situation at the J24, intercepted Troy Aikman at the J15 and started the Jets forth on a 67-yard drive which gave NY a 10-6 lead on a Pat Leahy FG. Dallas recovered a NY onside kick attempt and drove to the J9 when a illegal motion penalty nullified a TD run and forced Dallas to settle for its 3rd FG. That's when the Jets broke the game open. They drove 65-yards in 13 plays and improved the margin to 17-9 on Brad Baxter's 2-yard run. McMillan closed out Dallas' last rally with a leaping INT and the Jets marched 48 yards to put the game out of reach on Freeman McNeil's 1-yard TD run.

Nov. 11, MIAMI 17, at Jets 3 (68,362) - Windy, cold. The Dolphins proved to be a team of opportunity and took advantage of a pair of New York errors in the 2nd half to gain the victory. Miami's 1st break came when it recovered a punt which touched a Jets' player at the NY6. Two plays later it had the go-ahead TD on Dan Marino's 4-yard pass to Tony Paige. Miami's next break came when Tim McKyer intercepted Ken O'Brien at the M49 and returned it to the NY34 and the Dolphins survived a controversial "no fumble" call and 6 plays later iced the game on another TD. Miami's defense held the Jets without a TD and limited New York to only 154 yards in addition to sacking O'Brien 5 times to go with 2 INTs and 1 FR. The Jets defense kept the game close as it came up with a pair of FR and an INT. All 3 of Miami's scores came on drives of 50 yards or less. The Dolphins also controlled the ball for 71 plays to the Jets 53 as they converted 8-16 3rd down situations.

Nov. 8, AT INDIANAPOLIS 17, Jets 14 (47,283) - Indoors. It was a bitter defeat for the Jets. They went out and dominated the Colts everywhere except where it counts—on the scoreboard and then saw Indy come from 14 points back to win. The Jets produced 425 yards to the Colts 313, they ran 73 plays to their 50 and they had the ball for 36:17 to the Colts 23:43, but the Jets couldn't overcome their problems of not scoring in the red zone. Four times they had to settle for Pat Leahy FGs after driving to the Colts 9, 4, 12 and 21. Their other 2 points came on a Dennis Byrd sack and safety. The Colts even got the benefit of a Jets INT. Erik McMillan made an INT of Jeff George and returned it 24 yards to the J43 when he tried to lateral the ball and fumbled it away. George recovered it and on the next play saw his pass tipped away by James Hasty only to be caught for a 43-yard TD by Jessie Hester. After tying the score the Colts took advantage of a short punt to set up the winning 38-yard FG. NY's last try to tie went awry as they moved as far as the C22, but were penalized 3 times in the drive engineered by backup QB Tony Eason, who had taken over for Ken O'Brien who was sidelined with a concussion.

Nov. 25, PITTSBURGH 24, at Jets 7 (57,806) - Cloudy, mild. The Jets and Steelers battled on even terms for a half and then the Steelers proved to be good opportunists turning a pair of mistakes into a go-ahead FG and then converted an INT into a TD to put the game out of reach to gain the victory. In their go-ahead drive, the Steelers were about to punt when their punter mishandled the snap and as he was being tackled, handed off and turned to play into a 1st down. Four plays later the Steelers' flea-flicker was about to blow up when the pass back bounced into the hands of Bubby Brister, but Brister turned the errant throw into another 1st down and Pittsburgh was on their way to a 10-7 lead. After Ken O'Brien's 53-yards TD pass to Rob Moore, the Steelers tied it up when the Jets quick kick on 3rd down went awry and Pittsburgh only had to go 27-yards for the TD. For the day, the Steelers held NY to only 173 yards and they controlled the ball for 39:25. O'Brien, who was having an inconsistent game, was lifted for Tony Eason in the 4th quarter.

Dec. 2, AT SAN DIEGO 38, Jets 17 (40,877) - Sunny, warm. The Jets bowed to the Chargers in San Diego when SD turned 3 take-aways into 3 TD. With 5 minutes remaining, New York was about to close to within 7 points when Ken O'Brien's pass from the SD 8-yard, which was intended for WR receiver Rob Moore, bounced off of his shoulder pads and was intercepted by SD in the end zone. The Chargers then put the Jets away with another TD led by the rushing of Marion Butts. For the day Butts was 26-159-2 TD, with 120 coming in the 2nd half.

Dec. 16, INDIANAPOLIS 29, at Jets 20 (41,423) - Partly cloudy, cool. The Jets had a chance to put the Colts away, but ended up shooting themselves in the foot and gave the Colts new life and a 29-21 victory. Leading 14-3, the Jets fumbled away a PR leading to an Indy TD, then came back from that disaster only to see an easy TD slip away when Al Toon overthrew a wide-open Ken O'Brien from the 123 yard line. They further hurt themselves missing a 40-yard FG attempt which would have at least established a 17-10 halftime margin. The Colts came back with 26 straight points on a pair of Eric Dickerson TD runs and 2 FG. NY concluded the scoring as rookie QB Troy Taylor moved the club 61 yards on 9 plays with the final points coming on a 10-yard TD pass to Rob Moore. It was Moore's 2nd TD grab of the game.

outstanding play of the offensive line. NY's 3 QBs were 15-16-228-2 TD. Starter Ken O'Brien was 11-12-210-2 TD and hit his last 8. Rookie Troy Taylor was 3-3-12 and ran for a TD and Tony Eason was 1-1-6 in his brief stint. The Jets' defense recorded its most sacks (6) since the final 1988 game vs. the Giants (8) and Dennis Byrd led the way with a career high 3. DEC. 30, JETS 16, at Tampa Bay 14 (46,543) - Sunny, warm. The Jets wrapped up their 1st season under Bruce Coslet by holding off a late Tampa Bay surge to win their second straight game and finish the year 6-10. NY started the game with an impressive 16-play, 71 yard drive to the TB4 but were forced to settle for the 1st of team MVP Pat Leahy's 3 FGs on the day. The Bucs answered back with a TD drive before the Jets took the lead for good. Two plays after Leahy's next FG made it 7-6, Jeff Lageman forced a fumble at the TB35 which led to Blair Thomas' 1st NFL rushing TD and a 13-7 lead at halftime. The Jets' defense spent the entire 2nd half of the game coming up with big plays to thwart the Bucs drives. Erik McMillan and Tony Stargell halted 2 drives with INTs, and Dennis Byrd registered 2 sacks. NY's biggest play, though, came after a Buc TD closed the score to 16-14 with 3:32 left. Tony Eason, who had entered the game the previous drive after Ken O'Brien left with a concussion, scrambled on a 3rd-and-5 play from the NY29 and found Dale Dawkins for a 31-yard completion to give the Jets a crucial 1st down and opportunity to run the clock out. The Jets pounded out 155 yards rushing and with the exception of Vinny Testaverde's 51 yards scrambling, held the TB running attack to only 19 yards on 12 carries.

HALL OF FAMERS

WEEB EWBANK HEAD COACH (1963-73)

On July 29, 1978 Weeb Ewbank was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Ewbank ranks 11th on the all-time coaches victory list with 130. He is the only coach ever to win World Championships in both the NFL (Baltimore 1958-59) and AFL (New York 1968).

Ewbank joined the Jets in 1963 after serving as head coach of the Colts from 1954-1962. The 1968 season was a magical one for the players, coaches and the fans. The Jets went 11-3 and burst into the playoffs on the way to Super Bowl III versus Ewbank's former team—the Baltimore Colts. The New Yorkers shocked the world by defeating the Colts 16-7 (the 1st victory for the AFL in the Super Bowl).

Ewbank coached the Jets through 1973 before retiring. He has worked with some of the game's greatest legends including Joe Namath, Don Maynard, Paul Brown, Otto Graham, Johnny Unitas and Raymond Berry.

JOE NAMATH QUARTERBACK (1965-76)

Joe Namath, "superstar", it's an apt description for this Jet's quarterback. He was a player who transcended the playing field to become a household name and put a whole league on the map, the AFL. Namath enjoyed a sparkling career and led the Jets to what experts call one of the greatest upsets in sport's history when he guided the team to a 16-7 win over the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III on Jan. 12, 1969.

Despite having five knee operations, Namath was one of the game's great quarterbacks and one of its most prolific passers. He was the first player to throw for more than 4,000 yards doing it in a 14-game season (1967). He still holds most of the Jet's passing records and for his pro career completed 1,886 of 3,762 passes for 27,663 yards and 173 TD.

Namath's 1965 signing gave the Jets and the AFL the credibility they needed and started the building to the Super Bowl championship. His legendary Alabama coach Bear Bryant said: "Joe Namath is the greatest athlete I have ever coached."

Namath was elected to the Hall of Fame on January 29, 1985.

DON MAYNARD WIDE RECEIVER (1960-72)

At the time of his retirement, Don Maynard was the all-time leading receiver in NFL history. Maynard caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7) for 88 TD (all Jets records). His yardage still ranks 4th all-time and his number of catches is 7th.

Maynard was a four-time AFL All-Star and is a member of the All-Time AFL team chosen by the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He went over the 100-yard receiving mark in 50 games (still an NFL record). The El Paso, TX native joined the AFL in 1960 and was the first Titan to sign a contract.

His most memorable game was the 1968 AFL Championship in which he caught six passes for 118 yards and two TD (including the game-winner) to help put the Jets into the Super Bowl.

The Texas Western (now known as the Univ. of Texas at El Paso) alumnus was enshrined into the Hall of Fame on Aug. 8, 1987.

The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Daryle Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969—MIAMI ORANGE BOWL
NEW YORK 16, BALTIMORE 7

Defying the oddsmakers (17 1/2 point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries.

The defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two; Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach world champions in both the AFL and NFL.

1969 AFL PLAYOFF
Dec. 20, 1969 - SHEA STADIUM
KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it, 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jets 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only TD of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incomplection and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the world championship.

1981 AFC WILDCARD PLAYOFF
DEC. 27, 1981—SHEA STADIUM
BUFFALO 31, NEW YORK 27

In one of the most exciting playoff games ever played, the Buffalo Bills hung on to defeat the Jets, 31-27 as Bill Simpson made an interception on the two-yard line with time running out.

The Bills scored on the opening kickoff when they recovered a Bruce Harper fumble and quickly built that to a 24-0 second quarter lead. The Jets rallied in the third quarter to make it 24-13. The game appeared over as Joe Cribbs busted a 50-yard TD to give Buffalo a 31-13 lead with 10:16 left.

The Jets refused to die, however, and with Richard Todd at the controls, New York scored 2 quick TDs and were now down 31-27 with 3:44 to go. A swarming defense forced the Bills to go three and out and with 2:36 left and the goal line 80-yards away, Todd started the Jets on their march. They drove to the Bills 11-yard line with 14 seconds on the clock, but Simpson made his game-saving interception and the Jets' season ended.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF
JAN. 9, 1983—CINCINNATI RIVERFRONT STADIUM
NEW YORK 44, CINCINNATI 17

The Jets mixed up solid and hard hitting football with a measure of razzle dazzle on offense and gimmicks on defense to beat the Bengals at Cincinnati in round one of the NFL Super Bowl tournament. The game was highlighted by Freeman McNeil's 202 yards rushing, the 3rd highest playoff history, a TD pass from McNeil and a 98-yard INT for a TD by Darrol Ray to secure the win. The Bengals jumped to leads of 14-3 and 14-10 and were threatening to score again, when the Jets' defense might have made the play of the day. Nickel back Johnny Lynn made an interception at the J1 and with McNeil leading the way behind an awesome performance by the offensive line, the Jets surged to a 17-14 lead which they never surrendered. McNeil was the "cannon" being shot by Richard Todd 21 times for 202 yards and one TD.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF
JAN. 15, 1983—LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM
NEW YORK 17, L.A. RAIDERS 14

The Jets sprung upset number two in the 2nd round of the Super Bowl tournament, beating the Raiders to enter the AFC championship game. Richard Todd's 45-yard pass to Wesley Walker set up the winning one-yard TD run by Scott Dierking, but it took a pair of Lance Mehl interceptions in the last 3 minutes to wrap it up for the Jets. New York jumped to a 10-0 lead on a 20-yard TD pass from Todd to Walker and a Pat Leahy FG, but the Raiders came storming back in the 2nd half to take a 14-10 lead. The Jets came back to take the lead at the 3:45 mark following the Todd to Walker bomb, but the Raiders still had plenty of time. It looked as if the Jets had put the Raiders away when Mehl intercepted Plunkett at the LA27 with only 2:49 left, but the Raiders got one more chance when they recovered a Freeman McNeil fumble at their own 33 with 2:26 to go. Then Mehl made his clinching interception and this time the Jets ran out the clock.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP
MIAMI 14, NEW YORK 0

On an extremely muddy field at Miami's Orange Bowl, the Jets and Dolphins waged a defensive battle which ended with Miami on top 14-0 to earn a trip to the Super Bowl. A.J. Duhe was the hero of the game, which saw a total of 12 turnovers, with three interceptions, returning the final one 35-yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Woody Bennett ran seven yards for the first Miami touchdown on the Dolphins' first possession of the third quarter, capping a 48-yard, seven-play drive following Duhe's second interception. The poor field conditions severely hurt the Jets' rushing attack as Freeman McNeil, who had rushed for 303 yards in the previous two playoff wins, was limited to only 46 yards on 17 carries due to the footing. It was the first time in NFL playoff history that two teams were deadlocked at 0-0 at halftime. The Jets passing game was also hindered as Richard Todd was intercepted a record-tying five times by Miami. The New York defense held Miami to only 198 net yards, intercepted David Woodley three times and forced three fumbles.

1985 AFC WILDCARD PLAYOFF
DEC. 28, 1985—GIANTS STADIUM
NEW ENGLAND 26, NEW YORK 14

New England came out on top 26-14 in a game that saw the Jets self-destruct. The Jets committed 4 costly turnovers which led to 17 Patriots points. New England, which went on to win the AFC championship, played an almost flawless game with no turnovers and only 1 penalty. The Jets were ahead 7-6, and driving late in the 2nd quarter when Ken O'Brien was intercepted on the 7-yard line. New England came back with a TD pass from Tony Eason to Stanley Morgan on a blitz 6 plays later. O'Brien suffered a concussion on the final play of the half on an Andre Tippett sack and would only play the first series of the 2nd half. Before Pat Ryan could relieve him though, New England added a FG and then scored a TD when the ensuing kickoff was fumbled by Johnny Hector and returned 15-yards by Johnny Rembert. With the Jets trailing 23-7, Ryan came in and directed a TD drive.

1986 AFC WILDCARD PLAYOFF

Dec. 28, 1986—GIANTS STADIUM

NEW YORK 35, KANSAS CITY 15

Joe Walton started Pat Ryan to give the team an emotional lift and it got just that from Ryan plus a key running play and a 3-TD passing performance. The club also received Freeman McNeil's 135-yard rushing performance to spark the Jets' first home playoff win since 1968. Trailing 6-0, Ryan ran a QB draw for 24 yards from the KC33 on a 4th & 6 play to set up the Jets' go ahead TD. On the 1st down of the ensuing series, the Jets defense forced a KC fumble and Ryan concluded a 12-play, 47-yard drive with a 1-yard pass to McNeil. Just prior to the half, Ryan hit Al Toon with a TD pass for a 21-6 halftime edge. The Jets nailed the victory on the 1st play of the 2nd half when Kevin McArthur swiped a Todd Blackledge pass and dashed 21 yards for a 28-6 margin. The Jets' defense allowed a season low 241 yards total offense and had 2 sacks, 2 INT and 1 recovered fumble.

1986 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Jan. 3, 1987—CLEVELAND STADIUM

CLEVELAND 23, NEW YORK 20 (2 OTs)

In the 3rd longest game in NFL history (77:02), Cleveland staged an incredible comeback to send the game into OT before Mark Moseley's 27-yard FG advanced the Browns to the AFC Championship game. With Pat Ryan at QB, the Jets jumped on top 7-0 following a flea-flicker 42-yard TD pass from Ryan to Wesley Walker. Ryan was forced to leave the game in the 2nd quarter with a groin injury and was replaced by Ken O'Brien. Meanwhile, the Jets defense was outstanding holding the Browns to just 10 points and 302 total yards until late in the 4th quarter. Immediately after a Jerry Holmes interception, the Jets took a 20-10 lead on Freeman McNeil's 25-yard TD with 4:14 remaining in regulation. Kosar led the Browns 68 yards to set up Kevin Mack's one-yard run to make the score 20-17 with 1:57 left. Cleveland's defense forced the Jets to punt with :51 left before Kosar's 37-yard pass to Webster Slaughter to the 5-yard line set up the tying 22-yard FG. The Jets got a 2nd life when Moseley missed a 23-yard FG 6:06 into OT, but he redeemed himself by kicking the winning 27-yard FG on a first-and-goal play from the J9.
